INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
Syracuse Northeast Community Center, Inc.
Syracuse, New York

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Syracuse Northeast Community Center, Inc., (the Center), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2020, and the related statement of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Center as of December 31, 2020, and the change in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. Nature of Operations

Syracuse Northeast Community Center, Inc. (the "Center") is a nonprofit corporation that operates a multi-purpose facility to serve residents of the Northside of the City of Syracuse, with a primary focus on the Northeast neighborhoods, within which the Center is located. The purposes for which the Center was formed include subleasing of space in the multi-purpose facility to public and nonprofit charitable agencies, which offer specialized services to area residents and providing information, referral services and social services counseling to those utilizing the facility.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Center have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The financial statements include certain prior year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class and expense classification. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Center's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2019 from which the summarized information was derived.

Classification of Net Assets

The net assets have been classified as without donor restriction or with donor restriction based on the existence and/or nature of any donor imposed restrictions. When the donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restriction and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met within the same year as received are reflected as contributions and net assets without donor restriction.

Net assets with donor restrictions at December 31, 2020 and 2019 comprise of the following:

	December 31,
	2020	2019
Organization development grants	$ 31,558	$ 12,523
Basic needs program	4,111	989
Women's program	5,460	5,460
Total net assets with donor restrictions	$ 41,129	$ 18,972

SYRACUSE NORTHEAST COMMUNITY CENTER, INC.

Notes to the Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Liquidity

As part of the Center's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. To help manage unanticipated liquidity needs, the Center has committed lines of credit in the amount of $100,000, which it could draw upon.

Availability of Resources

The Center has the following financial assets available within one year of the balance sheet date to meet cash needs for general expenditures as of December 31:

	2020	2019
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 741,941	$ 234,016
Grants and other receivables	278,082	183,364
Total financial assets	1,020,023	417,380
Net assets with donor restrictions	(41,129)	(18,972)
Financial assets available to meet general expenditures over the next twelve months	$ 978,894	$ 398,408

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, if any, at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Tax Status

The Center is qualified as a tax-exempt Center under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service not to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SYRACUSE NORTHEAST COMMUNITY CENTER, INC.

The Center has adopted the provision of FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes, which requires that a tax position be recognized or derecognized based on a "more likely than not" threshold. This applies to positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including maintenance of tax-exempt status. The Center believes the financial statements are free of any uncertain tax positions. Tax penalties, if any, are recorded in tax expense. The Center's tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities for a period of three years from the date they are filed.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Center considers all checking, savings, and money market accounts and short-term investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents are held at various banking institutions that are insured up to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) limits. The center does not have any restricted cash balances at December 31, 2020 or 2019.

Revenue Recognition and Receivables

The Center follows FASB ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers which requires the recognition of revenue related to the transfer of goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Center expects to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services, as well as additional qualitative and quantitative disclosures about revenues.

The Center's significant sources of revenue and revenue recognition methods are as follows:

Contributions and foundation grants received are recorded as net assets with or without donor restrictions depending on whether there are donor-imposed restrictions. Unconditional promises to give cash and other assets are reported at fair value at the date the promise is received. Conditional promises to give and indications of intentions to give are reported at fair value at the date the gift is received. The gifts are reported as with donor restriction if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified as net assets without donor restriction and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restriction. Donor restricted contributions and foundation grants whose restrictions are met within the same year as received are reflected as net assets without restriction. Special event revenue is not typically consistent for the Center.

Government grants and contract revenue is recognized as the underlying performance obligations are satisfied over a period of time utilizing the input method, which is based upon when the Center incurs expenses related to the contract or project. The performance obligations are determined based upon the nature of services provided by the Center under each contract. Generally, the funds are not remitted to the Center until a voucher for services provided or expenses incurred has been submitted for reimbursement. Funds received in advance of services provided or expenses being incurred are generally recorded as refundable advances.

Rental income is recognized on a monthly basis as rents come due under the rental agreement with the tenant. The Center sub-leases portions of the facility to other entities under agreements accounted for as operating leases. The majority of the rental income is generated from a month to month lease with another nonprofit entity. Payments received in advance of the monthly rental period, if any, are recorded as deferred revenue.

Other income primarily represents funding from the United Way which is recognized monthly based on the underlying allocation agreement with the United Way.

The Center considers receivables to be fully collectible based on management's review of individual accounts outstanding. If collection becomes doubtful, an allowance for doubtful accounts will be established when that determination is made by management. Unpaid balances remaining after the stated payment terms are considered past due. Recoveries of previously charged off accounts are recorded when received.

Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue represents funds received on grants that have not been earned or spent in the current year.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and depreciated using the straight-line method. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the lease terms or the estimated useful lives of the assets using the straight-line method. Donations of property and equipment are recorded as support at their estimated fair value at the time of donation. When items of property or equipment are sold or retired, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is included in change in net assets.

Donated services are recognized as contributions if the services create or enhance nonfinancial assets or require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Center. No amounts have been recognized in the financial statements for these services since they do not meet the criteria for recognition.

Methods Used for Allocation of Expenses among Program and Supporting Services

The financial statements present expenses by function and natural classification. Expenses directly attributable to a specific functional area of the Center are reported as expenses of those functional areas. Certain categories of expenses that are attributable to one or more program or administrative services of the Center are allocated. Those expenses mainly relate to salaries, which are allocated directly based on timesheets prepared for each employee by pay period.

The PPP provides for loans to qualifying businesses for amounts up to 2.5 times the average monthly payroll expenses of the qualifying business. The Center is subject to various risks and uncertainties in the ordinary course of business that could have adverse impacts on its operating results and financial condition. Future operations could be affected by changes in the economy or other conditions in the geographical area where the Center is located.

In March 2020, the World Health Organization categorized Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) as a pandemic, and the President of the United States declared the COVID-19 outbreak a national emergency. The spread of the virus globally in 2020 and 2021 has caused business disruption domestically in the northeastern United States, the area in which the Center operates. As detailed in Note 8, the Center received a PPP loan of $107,200 during 2020 to mitigate the impact of the pandemic on its operations and cash flows. As of July 8, 2021, there continues to be considerable uncertainty surrounding the duration of the pandemic but the full extent of the financial impact to the Center cannot be reasonably estimated at this time.
